

national science week 2024

STEMathon Code Conduct

A code of conduct serves as a set of guidelines and expectations for behaviour, ensuring a safe, respectful, and inclusive environment for all participants involved in the STEMathon event. It outlines the principles of conduct that everyone is expected to adhere to during the event.

Participants, including school students, children, and attendees, are expected to:

- Treat fellow participants, volunteers, staff, and presenters with kindness, respect, and consideration.
- Take care of equipment, materials, and the venue surroundings, and refrain from causing damage, stealing or disruption.

Event staff members are expected to:

- Provide assistance: Offer guidance, support, and assistance to participants, volunteers, and attendees as needed.
- Ensure safety: Prioritise the safety and well-being of all participants and attendees and promptly address any safety concerns or emergencies.

Volunteers are expected to:

- Approach tasks with enthusiasm, positivity, and a willingness to help others.
- Maintain the confidentiality of sensitive information shared during the event and respect participants' privacy.

Teachers and parents are expected to:

- Provide adequate supervision and guidance to children under their care, ensuring their safety and well-being throughout the event.
- Encourage children to collaborate, share ideas, and engage in cooperative learning experiences with others.