Sports Carnival tomorrow:

Students are requested to wear their faction-coloured polo. All students are required to have their school hat. (These can be purchased from the school office) Please pack enough water and food for them to eat throughout the day. Parents will be able to purchase coffee and the P & F will be selling raffle tickets for both the Docker's Guernsey and a load of wood! Cash and EFTPOS will be available. Please click here to view the Schedule of Events. If parents wish to take their children home from the carnival, please sign them out with their individual classroom teacher.

We are also looking for a few strong people who might like to come and help erect gazebos at 7am at the town oval - payment of breakfast in the staffroom afterwards! Please contact the office on 97826500 if you can assist.

P & F News:

P & F Bingo Night is on Saturday, 17th September.

Tickets are available from the school office for $15 each. Cash and EFTPOS is available for payment. This is an 18+ event only.

Do not forget to create your child's online profile for the Colour Run on Thursday, 22 September. Spare books can be collected from the school office.
